James,

I received your fax. I did not say that I would not cooperate with you. I said we won't be approving your request to visit and interview at Angola. If you'd like to send some questions in writing pertaining to the story you are writing we will consider them.

We feel that you have not in the past, despite your ability to do so, reported accurately on Angola. We feel it in our best interest to work with those who report accurately and as I stated before we will be happy to receive your questions and answer them appropriately in writing to ensure that the story is accurate. We will even offer to send you a photo appropriate for your story.

I hope this serves to demonstrate our cooperation.

Sincerely,

Cathy Fontenot
Assistant Warden/Programming
